

Brake Caliper, Rear

The brake caliper is a combination unit, performing the functions of both service and parking brake. The brake caliper is of cast iron and is equipped with one piston.

The brake caliper is secured to a bracket on the hub carrier by means of two bolts.

T 8734