

Radiator

The radiator is mounted horizontally on top of the crash box assembly. Air from the front of the front clamshell is applied to the underside of the radiator, then exhausted through the grilles in the front bonnet.

The radiator is constructed of aluminium with plastic end tanks and provides a mounting for the cooling fan.

T 9157