

Roll Bar

A roll bar assembly is installed behind the seats for additional protection of the driver and passenger. The roll bar is of steel tube and is attached to the top of the chassis frame and the rear sub-frame by means of bolts. Two brackets (not illustrated) are installed on the roll bar to support the backrests of the seats.

T 9051